

Knowledge Organiser - Coasts

What will we be learning?

- The locations of the UK coast
- The main features of a seaside locality
- What it is like at the seaside
- How and why the seaside changes

Key Facts

Great Britain is an island, surrounded by the sea.
Northern Ireland also has a long coastline.
Some features of the seaside include beaches, cliffs and harbours.

Key Knowledge

There are many different seaside towns and villages around the UK coast.
The wind and waves cause changes to the coastline.
Different kinds of beaches are affected differently by the wind and waves.

Place Names	Geographical Terms	Locational terms
Porthpean St Austell	beach cliff coast feature harbour ocean port sea	North East South West

Glossary

beach: a place where the land runs into the sea

harbour: a place on the coast where boats and ships can stay safely

coast: a place where the land meets the sea