

Knowledge Organiser - Blue Abyss

What will we be learning?

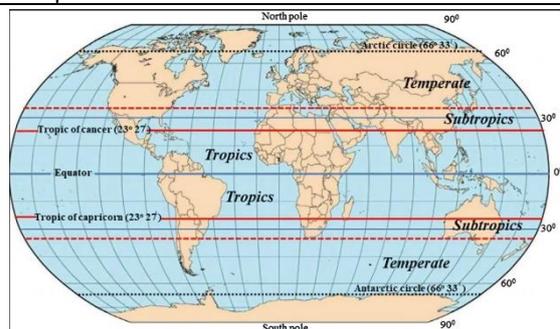

- What and where the Tropics of Cancer and Capricorn are
- Why people chose to settle near large bodies of water
- To understand the impact humans have on the environment

Key Facts

The Tropics of Cancer and Capricorn are lines on a map.
 There are several different types of settlements.
 Trade is important for the economy of different countries.

Key Knowledge

The Tropic of Cancer is an imaginary line in the Northern Hemisphere.
 The Tropic of Capricorn is an imaginary line in the Southern Hemisphere.
 A settlement is a place where people live.
 Buying and selling things is called trade. Trade is an important way for countries to make money and has been happening across the world for hundreds of years.
 Sustainability is ensuring that the planet and all of its resources can continue to provide a home for the humans, animals and plants that live here

Place Names	Geographical Terms	Locational terms
Northern Hemisphere	trade	poles
Southern Hemisphere	sustainability	north
Tropic of Cancer	impact	south
Tropic of Capricorn	environment
Equator	fishing settlement urban rural

Glossary

trade: the action of buying and selling goods.

sustainability: maintaining natural resources.

hemisphere: half of the Earth usually divided by the equator.

settlement: a place where people establish a community.